Marta has Bundles of Love

Marta takes Club 180° to monument museum

Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; And walk in love as Christ also hath loved us . . . Ephesians 5:1-2a Love is the hallmark of Christian life and the sine qua non of Christian service. Sine qua non is a Latin term that refers to an indispensable and essential action or ingredient. The indispensable ingredient of love is exactly what we look for while training full time workers.

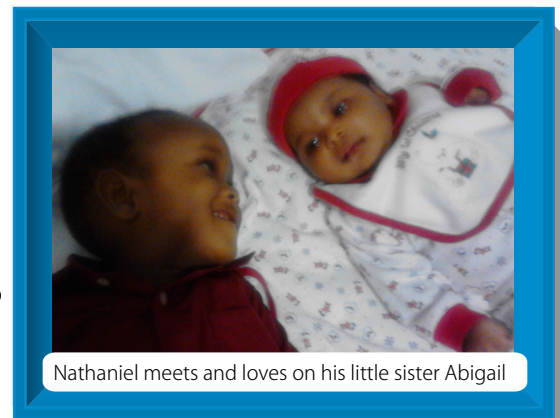

Specifically we look at the love that radiates from those the leader serves and with Marta, Pastor Dials wife, the children of IBB Don Pedro love her a lot and many have received Christ because of her ministry. This is very special because despite the political and cultural problems that exist between Haiti and the D.R, today the majority of the children coming to Club 180° on Saturday morning are Dominicans. Marta has grown tremendously since immigrating to the D.R. from Haiti and has faced similar obstacles missionaries face entering a new culture. The secret ingredient to overcome these boundaries? A heart of love - the sine qua non. Please pray for little Abigail, Marta's newest bundle of love.
