Do Miracles Still Happen?

Oh how many times as a missionary have I been asked - "Do Miracles still happen?" I think today's happenings should answer that question. This evening at approximately 4:55 p.m., directly in front of our church on Tamboril Highway, an elderly man and his 1 year old grandchild were pulling out on a motorcycle and were hit by another motorcycle traveling the opposite direction. The baby rolled out into the middle of the busy street on a curve. Those at the scene couldn't see the oncoming traffic nor could the oncoming traffic see around the curve. Every Saturday evening at 5:00 p.m. our young people meet for games, bible study and fellowship. Over a dozen people on the street and behind the churches five foot metal fencing witnessed "a miracle". The grandfather due to his injuries could not retrieve the baby, others on the street froze looking at the dangerous curve, while Chidelandia (holding JuliAnna's hand in the photograph), on her way to the young peoples meeting, left into the street without a moments hesitation and swept up the child to safety. Within minutes, the family we had invited many times to church, were face to face with one of our churches most faithful young members. Both the grandfather and the child were immediately taken to the hospital, Chidelandia visibly shaken started walking down Calle Jose Hernandez (a smaller sidestreet). Providentially, retuning from visiting a first time vistor coming up Calle Hernandez on my way to lead the young peoples meeting, I found Chidelandia sitting on the side of the road, alone and in shock. Having no idea what had just occurred I asked Chidelandia what was wrong. Not receiving much of an answer I . . . . .next month read the conclusion or read now on www.dr4christ.com

Baptisms of Chidelandia and JuliAnna (holding hands)
