Praying With Thanksgiving For Dad

Enjoying Father, Son time at the Houston Museum

My mom and dad has been a tremendous blessing over the years to our ministry. Many of you know my father, John Franklin as a teacher, many as a historian, others as a genealogist. Loved by his students, its hard to go anywhere with my Dad in Lubbock, without running into someone who hasn't passed through one of his classes. Dad is also a writer and is just about finished with - "Love Among The Derricks" which is filled with loads of characters and historical jewels from our family history. Its a beautiful story about my grandparents and you can find the first three chapters on our Facebook page.

My father received some tough news this month at Baylor's PDCMD Clinic that has kept us pretty busy. He was diagnosed with "Parkinson's Disease" after noticing a slight tremor in his right arm. Thankfully, being on furlough, I was able to travel with him during this time to Houston where he was accepted into the Parkinson's Progression Markers Initiative funded by the Michael J Fox foundation. This is a big blessing and we would covet your prayers for him.
