Services move to Puerta Plata

Tiffany gets baptized album - In the name of... 4/15/12

Our Church took services to the beautiful shores of Puerta Plata a few weeks ago. It was a very special day for our family because I got to baptize our daughter Tiffany, along the Malecón. We also added to the Church through baptism Rickideni, Andrea (we had asked for prayer for her in February) and Antonio. All the ladies brought food and the kids had fun playing together afterwards. Tiffany accepted Christ a year ago. We have been going one step at a time watching her grow in Christ. She was the first to be baptized and had the sweetest spirit.

The next week, Francisca, a very indoctrinated Jehovah Witness, who has walked among our church family for several months, came up to me before service and humbly said, "Pastor, I know I need Jesus, I'm ready to accept Him". It was amazing and providentially, her daughter received Christ with Regina as well. Miracles still occur and it is such a privilege to be apart of them.
