New Beginnings before Year's End

Tom Baptizes little JuliAnna in the Jamao River

What a blessed day!! Our Church in Tamboril baptized four new believers and then we celebrated the Lord's Supper together. The last one to be baptized was also the last one of our children I will get to baptize - little JuliAnna. She accepted Christ earlier this year with Regina and was raring to go. Tyler helped JuliAnna into the river right right around noon. Jordan helped me get my clothes and shoes ready and then took care of Tiffany while Regina took pictures. To see all your children receive Christ is an incredible blessing but to be able to baptize all of them over the last 14 years is something I will be grateful to the Lord for the rest of my days. It was an absolutely perfect day and it was fitting that our little Dominican was baptized in the waters of the country of her birth. She really enjoys the Dominican.

It rained and rained but that didn't dampen the Bible Baptist Church of Don Pedro from finishing there first 3 day missions conference. Pastor Clifford came from Croix des Bouquet, Haiti and challenged the church to pray, give and go. At the missions banquet, Pastor Dial, took up the Faith Promise Missions Cards and announced that they were going to support Pastor Clifford's work in Haiti for $100 a month. The service closed with everyone singing Silent Night. Regina and I left very, very encouraged and want to thank everyone of you who support us so faithfully.
