Hustle and Bustle

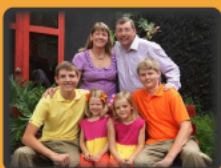

Thanksgiving Memories on Facebook

Thanksgiving on the mission field always kick starts a season of festivities for our family and ministry. This year we made the trip to San Francisco de Marcoris to visit the Johnson family. The food (as always) was incredible but listening to how God has blessed their lives and ministry this year was the highlight. We returned and I preached a sermon that Sunday on Psalms 25 entitled "Difficult Times". I was thinking about several of our families in the church as well as my father who has had a difficult time recovering from two emergency surgeries. Lo and behold that same week Pastor Dial, JuliAnna and I all got sick. Nathaniel and Abigail were hospitalized and even though we always have had our missions conference the last week in Nov., we moved it back a week and had the Lord's Supper (beautiful service) Sunday morning. Everyone is healthy now and Wednesday the festivities continue with our mission conference culminating with Sunday night's dinner and the years first Christmas carols. Please pray, as we will be highlighting Cuba and Pastor Dial's upcoming trip there.

Dad has moved into long-term care in  ^{12/2} Lubbock. He has improved but because of his Parkinson's, it's not at the level necessary to go home. Mom is getting used to being by herself and visiting him every day. Pray for the staff and for us as we plan a trip to visit him
