continued ... Do Miracles Still Happen?

Having no idea what had just occurred I asked Chidelandia what was wrong. Not receiving much of an answer, I carefully began asking her if someone had hurt her, how things were at home, school ect. ect. ect. Having listened to her say fine, fine, fine yet knowing something just wasn't right, with my right eyebrow up and my left eyebrow down I looked at Chidelandia, smiled and said, "You know it's not good to lie to your Pastor." That's when the flood gates opened and everything came out. All the young people recounted Chidelandia's heroic act and a mini celebration broke out at the Bible Baptist Church of Tamboril for the little one Chidelandia had saved. Figuring visitation wasn't over, I dismissed myself from the Church, visited the family and shared with them Chidelandia's story. I explained to them about the day's real miracle - which wasn't about their baby being saved but about how several years before, Chidelandia, a poor immigrant child from Haiti, had received Christ as her Savior. How she had been prepared from that time to today for such a time as this. I explained that it was no coincidence - Chidelandia had been providentially placed at the perfect time to save their little Dominican baby. That the real miracle was how the Lord had saved Chidelandia and filled her with the Holy Spirit. Please pray - pray that Chidelandia over the next week will be filled with the knowledge of His will and that she will know what He has made very plain in His Word that He would have us to do - to be a witness for Jesus. Please pray that in the days to come, He will make our Church an even greater soul winning, loving Church and many will give their hearts to Jesus. I sure am grateful He is still able to miraculously save - whosoever will.
