Extraordinary Circumstances, Ordinary Men

Gave several thousand evangelistic tracts to the church 3/12

Every third week of the month, Pastor Dial and I, share with the Church in Don Pedro, why we need to be committed to personal evangelism. We continue to use “Way of the Master” and saw several receive Christ in this last week alone. From the outside looking in, you might wonder where are we going to put them? The house we are renting is relatively small and we still lack $5,250 to begin phase 1 of developing the property. The Church has felt led to keep adding services and now we have 5 different worship services throughout the week, not counting Sunday School, Rayitos de Luz (Sat. morning) and two different “casa cultos” (House Services) Tuesday and Thursday. In the States, people are very busy and can only give a limited amount of time. Here, there is an abundance of time, since many in the Church currently are without a full time job. Don Pedro is part of greater Santiago (Population 1,000,000+) and due to a massive influx of Haitian immigrants, the Church has grown, but under great financial challenges. Believe it or not, through these challenges, the Church has had a Doctor and several farmers join. They have come up with a plan to put quite a few back to work so the Church can become financially autonomous by the end of the year. Please pray God blesses the men of our Church and this plan. Fleet Admiral William Halsey said, “There are no extraordinary men in this world, just extraordinary circumstances that ordinary men rise to meet.” While we agree with the late admiral, we also know that God’s way’s are not our way’s (Is 55:8) and we must trust the Lord by faith to overcome these extraordinary circumstances.
